A message from Karen Orth

Wow! What a night we had. Thank you for attending Camelot Auction 2022 and supporting our Lancer Tradition. That was fun!

Thanks to our loyal sponsors and donors who made this night possible. I want to thank Jen Feeley for creating the amazing back alley entrance to our speakeasy and all of the other memorable touches that made this event over-the-top. We couldn't have pulled off this gala without our terrific volunteer team, especially Lea Simonton and her crew of helpers in the cashiers office. I want to thank Emily Buckley and Matt McLaughlin who are the best emcees ever! Thanks to Jazzy Joe Feeley for spinning tunes as our DJ. Thanks to Mary Hoffman for taking candid photos all night! Thank you to Brian Heidorn '86 and Brother Michael Schmelzer, FSC for our welcome and prayer to kick off our evening. Thanks to Jake Pucci, Brian Meyer '00 and Tim Waymire for hosting the Live Auction. Thanks to Aaron and Anna Marshall for the exciting cupcake game. And last, but not least, a huge thanks to Helen Hoffmann for her 20 years of service to La Salle and Camelot Auction. I am so grateful for your tremendous support, countless hours and dedication to our students and school over the years.

I could go on and on because it takes a village to make it happen. Welcome to Cecilia Long who will take the reigns. It has been my pleasure and privilege to witness the amazing generosity of the La Salle community for the past nine years.

Thank you so much,
Karen Orth
