I. Welcome/Prayer

II. Principal's Report/Update from Aaron Marshall - read by Kisha.

- Big Red Raffle? Parents, in general, were asking who the raffle benefits, and where the money goes, its purpose, etc.
 - Cecilia Long is overseeing the raffle and tracks sellers and funds
 - An e-mail was sent out to parents addressing the aforementioned concerns on 9/14
 - Tickets: $10; launched 9/8 – students must sell a minimum of 20 tickets
 - Various incentives offered to students to encourage selling
 - Funds go to school operations and just as important, keeps tuition competitive
- Staff turnover? Multiple staff leaving, and new positions being created - response: families have not indicated this was a reason they did not choose La Salle; realizes how this “looks” for La Salle...

III. Discuss LPC Involvement with Scheduled Upcoming Events

- Will Open House need an LPC presence? Nov. 7
- Junior Ring Ceremony? November or December historically...suggestion from a parent from last year to just have the ceremony for the juniors receiving rings and their families
- Cookies for Christmas - last school day before exams (Dec. 15?)
- Euchre tourney in January - led by Mariellen; suggested to keep the same chairperson until (s)he doesn't want to any more instead of assigning a grade level rep, etc. to spearhead this; sophomore reps (Sarah, Tam, and Kathleen) are on the docket to help in any way needed
- Teacher Appreciation (Catholic Schools Week) - Kisha's suggestion: breakfast boxes again; will see if Huntington will cover the cost of the donuts and Tamara will reach out to Biggby Coffee to see if they will donate coffee. When it gets closer, Kisha will send out a Sign-up Genius for PALS to send in fruit (bananas and clementines, for example)
- LPC will be a presence for Commitment Night - maybe 3-5 members
- Senior Declaration - if La Salle provides refreshments, LPC can be a presence if needed
- Senior Picnic - Vickie Seng is willing to chair, and Julie Etris is willing to help. If anyone else would like to help, let Kisha know

IV. Fundraising

- From now on, a team (Miike Wiesman, Lea, and Aaron) will need to approve any future fundraisers – there is a form to complete for each fundraiser

a) Dine and Donate

- Monday, Oct. 17 - First Dine to Donate at Game On - Just have to mention it, no flyer needed. Starting Oct. 1, Kathleen will put on FB. Reminders will be posted regularly

b) Selling Rally Towels

- LPC did not fill out a fundraising form to sell Rally Towels; so, even though oral permission was previously granted, a form is now required

c) So far, by selling at Freshman, JV, and Varsity games, $150 in Rally Towels; permission was asked to sell the Rally Towels at lunchtime to the students. Answer - YES, starting in October. We have red and pink rally towels. ~ 11:15 - 1:00 on Friday, October 7 (Senior Night)

- 74 tickets were sold for the Cooler Raffle, resulting in a profit of approximately $1,550
- $1,550 + $150 = $1,700 so far in LPC's account
- Habedanks will sell rally towels at Oct. 7 game starting at 5:30
